Terminologies

Panel 1: "First Round"
東一局一本場
= Eastern wind additional round in the first round
likely that Hisaka, the dealer won the previous round and it continues to the extra round.

"Ron" ロン!

"Three Dragons with All Honour Tiles, Double Yakuman"

Hisaka won with double limit hands as the dealer, which allowed her to win a lot of points from Yui who was the one who gave Hisaka her winning tile

Panel 3: "baiman"
倍満
= Double Mangan
A very high scoring winning hand, though not as high as Hisaka's previous hand

Panel 4: "richi"
りーち
= Ready Hand
A call made by a player to indicate that his/her hand is a ready hand which require just another tile to win

"Dora Dora"
どらどら
Dora is an additional point if the winning hand holds one of the "dora" tiles specified at the start of the game

"Ryankan"
りゃんかん
A specific situation where the player is waiting for 2 different tiles on the same suit

"Yakitori"
やきとりーっ
An additional rule which indicates that a player that fails to win a single game in a match is penalized

"It's all chombo"
全部チョンボ
= They are all errors
chombo is where a player makes wrong calls or wrong moves and is penalized for it
Given the many erraneous calls Yui made in the previous panel she is set to lose a lot of money

Panel 6: "And so kakushimusau"
だから国士無双～
= And so "The peerless countryman" kakushimusau is a maximum scoring hand which earns a lot of points

"Iwasawa continued with a joke!?"
岩沢さんがノリツッコミしたよー!?
Iwasawa performed the "straight man" role in traditional Japanese humour, as a rebuke to Yui's "addition" to the lyrics

Panel 19: "Playing out of turn is not forbidden in GirDeMa!"
ガルデモは先ヅモ禁止だよ! 「ひさこ」
= Taking a tile before the other player discards is forbidden in GirlDeMa!
